In no event shall Sandtown Community Association be held liable to any party for any losses, nor any direct, indirect, or other damages arising directly or indirectly from any party's participation in this tournament. For several years, the Sandtown Foundation has awarded grants to support programs at Westlake High School, Sandtown Middle School, A. Philip Randolph Elementary, and Stonewall Tell Elementary. The foundation was specifically established to provide financial assistance to these community schools. To date, the Sandtown Foundation has awarded more than $60,000 to these schools. Please join us as we continue to support our students through these grants by participating in our 3rd Annual Sandtown Community Golf Tournament.
